

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protection. Because this is in place my phone rings much less when I walk in the door after work and during the dinner hour. If any change is made, I would like to see insurance companies and philanthropic groups adhere to the same laws. Thank you.